Fairfield Sentry Limited & Fairfield Sigma Limited – both in liquidation

The Joint Liquidators have received the attached letter of inquiry to acquire the economic interests of Registered Shareholdings in the above Funds. The Joint Liquidators, KRyS Global, or the management or employees have conducted no due diligence on the party making the inquiry and no inference should be drawn in their authority, credibility or ability to enter such arrangements. The Joint Liquidators only are circulating as a matter of courtesy. Parties considering a sale of their shares are advised to undertake their own due diligence as to the market value of their shareholding as well as any proposed counter-party or other investigations considered appropriate. The Joint Liquidators accept no liability in this regard.

Should a Registered Shareholder wish to sell or transfer their shares to another party, they should reach out to the inquiring party directly. For any transfer of shares to be reported accurately on the register, a request for approval of the transfer must be made to the Joint Liquidators. The BVI Court has ordered that the Joint Liquidators have a general discretion to approve or decline such requests (with Registered Shareholders retaining the right to make an application to the Court where they are dissatisfied with the Joint Liquidators' decision). Where the transferee or transferor are defendants to litigation brought against them by the Joint Liquidators, an agreed revised stipulation in those proceedings will also need to be entered.

Should you have any queries please forward these to Fairfieldsentry@krys-global.com or Fairfieldsigma@krys-global.com quoting your Holder ID and Account Number.

Yours faithfully
For and on behalf of
